UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
Endowed with 40,000 acres of land in 1784 and chartered in 1785, the charter was the first granted by a state for a government controlled university. After Louisville and then Greensboro were first selected, the current site was chosen.
The first president, and author of the school's charter, Abraham Baldwin, resigned when the doors opened, and was succeeded by Josiah Meigs. The University first began to thrive under Moses Waddel, who became president in 1819. Alonzo Church was president in 1829-1859.
During the War for Southern Independence, most of the students entered the Confederate Army. The University closed its doors in 1864, and did not open again until January 1866. After the war, many Confederate veterans became students.
Famous pre-war professors were John and Joseph LeConte and Charles F. McCay, while famous students were Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, Howell Cobb, and Crawford W. Long.
Plans for a modern university were first developed by Walter B. Hill and realized under Harmon W. Caldwell. The best known of the post-war presidents (now chancellors) was David C. Barrow. The builder of the modern plant was Chancellor Steadman V. Sanford.

$20M

UGA transformed Stegeman Coliseum with two major renovations costing more than $20 million combined to give the historic arena at 21st century face lift.

FANS FLOCK TO THE STEG:

Georgia Basketball broke its all-time total attendance record for Stegeman Coliseum during both the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons. In 2019-20, the Bulldogs' home average of 9,651 was the second-highest in school history as Georgia drew a schol-record 11 crowds of 10,000-plus fans at Stegeman.

STEGEMAN UPDATES:

- In 2010, a $13-million renovation upgraded Stegeman's concourse and added 10,000-square feet of space on both sides of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.
- In 2016-17, an $8-million investment enhanced the Coliseum's court and seating areas, most notably with the addition of a massive center-hung scoreboard.
- The multi-tiered center-hung scoreboard features more than 1000-square feet of HD video and 1000-square feet of LED sections
- In addition, nearly 2000-square feet of LED features were added around the arena's portals and upper rim.

NOTABLE NUMERALS

39 Anthony Edwards became Georgia's 39th all-time NBA Draft pick when he was taken No. 1 overall by Minnesota in 2020.

11 UGA drew a school-record 11 crowds topping the 10,000 plateau during the 2019-20 home schedule at Stegeman Coliseum.

97 Georgia Bulldog basketball players have combined to be earn All-SEC 97 accolades during the conference's history.

26 Georgia has earned bids to postseason play 26 times, with all of those coming last 40 seasons. The 1983 Final Four is UGA's best showing.

120 UGA's practice facility, which is adjacent to Stegeman Coliseum, is one of the nation's largest with 120,000 square feet.

90 The SEC Network is the most successful of all college sports TV ventures and was available in 90 million homes when it launched in 2014.

COVERING THE BULLDOGS

The 2022-23 Georgia Basketball Guide was prepared specifically to assist members of the media covering the Bulldogs. Any specific requests beyond the information in this publication – interviews, credentials, photography, etc. – should be directed to:

MOBLEY

Mike Mobley,
Associate SCD
UGA Sports Communications
email: mmobley@sports.uga.edu

Athens, Ga. 30603	Athens, Ga. 30605
OFFICE PHONE:	(706) 542-1621
CELL PHONE:	(706) 540-7486

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Georgia's home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Credentials are issued on a priority basis. All requests should be made via the SportsSystems online credentialing site.

Passes will be mailed when time allows. Other single-game credentials will be left at Media Will Call, which is located inside Gate A on the Smith Street side of the arena (see map on Page 9).

A limited number of parking passes will also be issued to media who cover the majority of UGA's home games. Media parking is in the Coverdell Lot, located off Smith Street behind the Coliseum Training Facility (see map on Page 9). In addition, parking in the Carlton Street deck, which is acutally closer to Media Will Call than the Coverdell Lot, is free of charge for media and fans.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with coaches and players will be conducted before practice on pre-determined dates. These opportunities will be conducted in person in the Taylor Room of the Coliseum Practice Facility. Unless the calendar necessitates a change, these availabilities will take place the day before each home game. As much advance notice as possible will be given for these dates and times. Please contact Mike Mobley in the Sports Communications office for assistance.

PRACTICES

Georgia's practice sessions are generally closed to the media. Upon request, videographers and photographers may be allowed to shoot a pre-determined portion at the beginning of some practices.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Stegeman Coliseum's press facilities are outlined in the diagram to the following page.

The press room is located through Portal 3 and is equipped with wireless and ethernet internet access. A room with similar internet capabilities is available for photographers adjacent to the press room.

A pre-game meal is served in the press room beginning approximately 90 minutes prior to tipoff of each game.

Press seating is located above Portal 2 in section K of the Coliseum's lower bowl. Radio broadcast positions are at the scorer's table, while TV announce locations are at center court opposite the scorer's table.

Complete first-half and final box scores will be provided, as will final game books with the aforementioned as well as first- and second-half play-by-plays, first- and second-half shot charts and post-game notes and quotes.

INTERNET ACCESS

Media wishing to obtain high-speed Internet access may log on via either through wireless or hard-wired ethernet method. Both are available in the media seating area and the working press room within the Coliseum. Please see a member of the UGA Sports Communications office to obtain information on how to access the University network.

IN-GAME STATISTICS

Media covering Georgia home games can view a running statistical account on a web browser by logging onto: uga.statbroadcast.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those accredited photographers working on assignment will be issued sideline credentials. Flashes and strobe units are prohibited unless permission has been granted. Photographers should shoot from the designated endzone locations. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

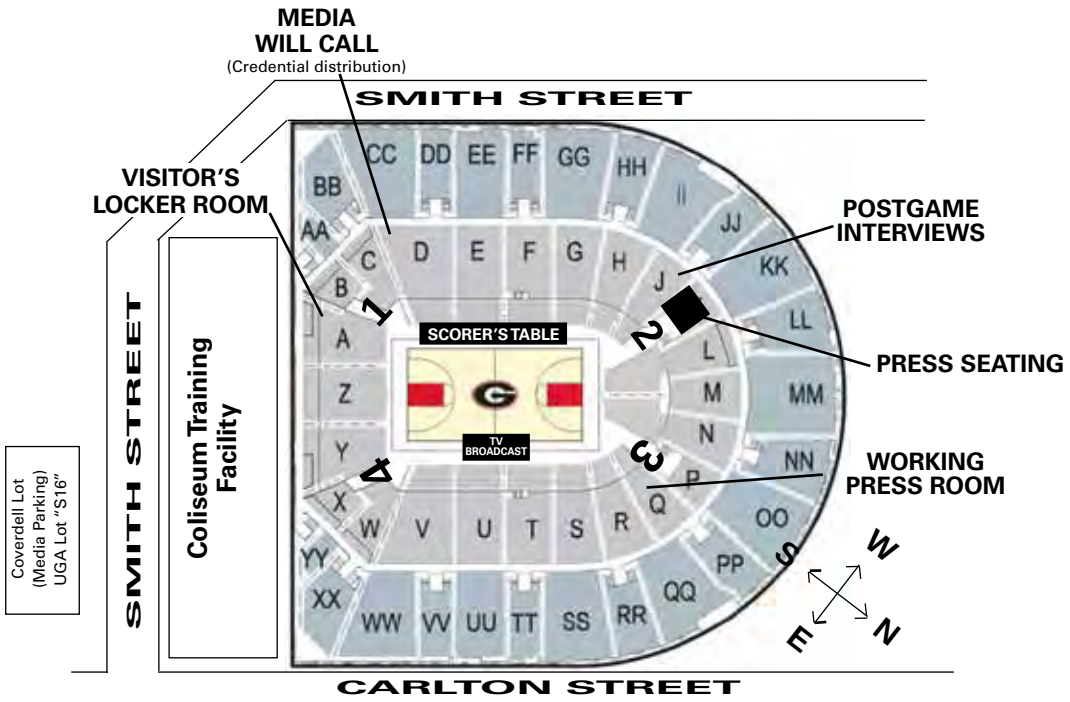
Photographers who wish to transmit their photos on-site are asked to use the room adjacent to the working press room. This area is specifically dedicated to the transmission of photography and provides greater work space.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following home games, Georgia head coach Mike White and two Bulldog players will be available for interviews in the press conference room accessible via Tunnel 2 of the playing floor.

Zoom sessions with Coach White also will be conducted following road games.

STEGEMAN COLISEUM PRESS FACILITIES DIAGRAM



Visiting teams will determine their own post-game procedure for available players. If those interviews are in person, most opponents choose to conduct those interviews outside their locker room. The location is through Portal 1 of the Coliseum playing floor and through the double-doors to the left at the end of the hallway.

Christened in 1963 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Stegeman has recently undergone thorough a series of major renovations, receiving a 21st Century face lift. In 2017, fans walked in to the final product following more than $20-million in renovations over several years.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000-square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

During the summer of 2017, the arena received a massive center-hung scoreboard, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in 2017 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

THE GEORGIA BULLDOG RADIO NETWORK

The best and broadest exposure possible for UGA basketball comes from the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network by IMG Sports. Not only with its vast number of affiliates, but also from its powerful flagship station AM 750 in Atlanta, the network gives coverage to Bulldog hoops that is unmatched by any program nationwide.

IMG Sports provides radio network production for more than 30 major college athletic programs in the SEC and other prominent conferences across the United Stats. The network flagship is News/Talk 750 WSB — Atlanta's 50,000-watt, clear-channel station — which provides coverage with a signal that reaches more than 35 states and Canada. Scott Howard and Chuck Dowdle will again handle the play-by-play and color analyst duties, respectively. Coach Tom Crean can also be heard on weeknights during the season on the Bulldog Hotline, heard over most of the network stations.

Scott Howard (right) and Chuck Dowdle will work their 11th season together in 2022-23.

SCOTT HOWARD

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia sports and in particular, with Bulldog football and basketball. Howard returns for his 28th season behind the microphone at Georgia basketball games. First a color analyst with legendary voice Larry Munson, Howard will be working his 24th season as the Bulldogs' primary play-by-play announcer.

Howard was the sports director at Athens radio stations WNGC-WGAU for 14 years before joining IMG Sports in 2009.

A 1984 Georgia graduate, Howard began his association with Bulldog football as a color analyst alongside Munson in 1994. In 2007, he broadcasted play-by-play action in all of Georgia's road football games, and the next season he became the program's primary radio voice by the third game. Howard was also play-by-play announcer for Georgia baseball from 1990-96.

CHUCK DOWDLE

Native Atlantan Chuck Dowdle, one of the most prominent figures in the Atlanta sports scene, will return to the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network for the his 11th season as color analyst for basketball broadcasts.

Dowdle retired from WSB-TV in 2009 after 24 years as weeknight sports anchor with the top-rated station. Dowdle also worked for WPLG in Miami from 1973-85. During that time, he hosted the Don Shula TV Show and also announced football for the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Hurricanes, as well as the NASL's Ft. Lauderdale Strikers.

During his time at WSB, Dowdle was involved with almost every aspect of Atlanta sports, from announcing Falcons' preseason games to hosting UGA football and basketball coaches' shows. He was also the host of "High-Q", a game show pitting some of the Atlanta region's brightest high-school students against one another in academic competition.

Dowdle attended UGA in his freshman year, where he played for the basketball team. He then transferred to Georgia State, where he was a pitcher for the baseball team in his junior and senior years, before graduating in 1972.

ADAM GILLESPIE

After serving as the back-up producer/engineer for the Georgia Radio Network last season, Adam Gillespie took over in a full-time role beginning with the 2020-21 campaign.

An Athens native who attended high school in Augusta, Gillespie joined the production staff at 680 The Fan in Atlanta in 2005. His role expanded to include producing the postgame show on the Atlanta Braves Network when the stationed the team's broadcast rights in 2010. That same year, 680 became the official sports-talk partner of Georgia Athletics and Gillespie began producing Bulldog Roundtable, the station's 30-minute show devoted exclusively to UGA Athletics which airs on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Derrick Floyd

1983 Final Four Captain

Derrick Floyd was an All-American at Northwestern High School in Miami, Fla., before arriving in Athens. He was significant contributor as a freshman in 1979-80 before knee injuries hindered his career. Floyd started nine games as a freshman and scored a career-high 18 points against Georgia Tech, including 10 of the Bulldogs' final 12 points in a 66-59 win over the Yellow Jackets. After playing in just 17 games as a sophomore and junior due to injuries, Floyd logged action in 29 contests during Georgia's Final Four campaign and helped give the Bulldogs one of the deepest back courts in the SEC. Floyd remained in Athens and today is the Director of Operations for the Boys and Girls Club of Athens and official scorer for Georgia basketball games.

It was a different type of Selection Sunday for Georgia Basketball in 2022. While the college basketball universe was focused on the release of the NCAA Tournament bracket for "March Madness," Georgia made waves in the news cycle just as the selection show was ending by announcing Mike White as the Bulldogs' new head coach at 7:54 p.m. ET.

"I am beyond excited for the opportunity to lead the men's basketball program at the University of Georgia," White said when becoming the Bulldogs' head coach. "President Jere W. Morehead and Athletics Director Josh Brooks are united in a strong vision for UGA Basketball which resonated with me deeply. They believe, as I do, in developing our young men as students, athletes and leaders, as well as providing them with the support they need to be successful. I believe in the limitless future of Georgia Basketball."

White, who averaged more than 22 wins per season in 11 campaigns as head coach at Florida and Louisiana Tech, was named the 23rd head men's basketball coach of the Georgia Bulldogs on March 13, 2022. White owns the unique distinction of being named Coach of the Year in three different conferences, securing 2017 SEC, 2015 Conference USA and 2014 WAC honors.

"We are extremely excited to welcome Mike White and his family to Athens," said Josh Brooks, Georgia's J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics. "We have witnessed Coach White to be a leader of men, as well as a proven winner with an impressive postseason body of work. We want to compete for national success in all 21 of our sports, and we believe that he is the coach that can build Georgia Basketball to a consistent winner on the collegiate basketball landscape."

White spent the seven seasons prior to his arrival in Athens at Florida, compiling a 142-88 record and leading the Gators to six postseason bids including four NCAA appearances. In four campaigns at Louisiana Tech between 2011-15, White's Bulldogs compiled a 101-40 record, won a trio of conference regular-season titles and advanced to three NITs.

"We are thrilled to welcome a coach with Mike White's integrity, character and competitive excellence to the University of Georgia," said Jere W. Morehead, University of Georgia President. "He has been a leader throughout his extensive head coaching experience at Florida and Louisiana Tech, and we are confident that he will make a positive impact on UGA student-athletes and our campus community."

White's entire basketball career has a model of consistent winning and postseason play.

As a head coach, eight of his teams at Louisiana Tech and Florida reached the 20-win mark, while four notched 27 or more victories. White's squads advanced to postseason play during nine of 10 possible seasons. During the 11th, when the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled due to COVID-19, the Gators were a consensus pick for an NCAA Tournament bid. Those teams made solid usage of the opportunities afforded them. Florida was one of only six programs nationally to win a game during each of the four NCAA Tournaments contested between 2017-21, headlined by a trip to the 2017 "Elite Eight." At Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs won three conference titles – 2013 WAC and 2014 and 2015 Conference USA – and advanced to the NIT quarterfinals in both 2014 and 2015.

White helped five more teams reach 20 wins during his 11 campaigns as an assistant and associate head coach at Ole Miss and Jacksonville State, with the Rebels capturing a pair of SEC West titles in 2007 and 2010. Ole Miss appeared in four NITs during White's seven season, reaching the semifinals in both 2008 and 2010.

As a player, White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss, including SEC West title teams in 1997 and 1998. He helped the Rebels string together three-consecutive 20-wins seasons from 1997-99, with each culminating with an NCAA Tournament bid – both firsts in program history. White fondly lists his proudest achievement as a player as dribbling out the clock of the Rebels' 72-70 victory over Villanova in 1999 to give Ole Miss its first-ever "March Madness" victory.

Totaling up the aforementioned, White has been a part of 16 20-win teams during his 26 seasons as a college basketball player and coach, capturing seven regular-season conference regular-season titles and earning 17 postseason bids.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL IN GAINESVILLE

Florida earned six consecutive postseason bids under White, reaching the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, becoming the only SEC program to qualify for four consecutive NCAAs from 2017-21 and advancing to the second round of the 2022 NIT.

From an accolades standpoint, White was voted as 2017 SEC Coach of the Year by both league coaches and the Associated Press after Florida finished second in the SEC and reached the NCAA "Elite Eight." He also was honored as the District Coach of the Year by the NABC and USWBA that season. In addition, Canyon Berry was tabbed 2017 SEC Sixth Man of the Year, seven different Gators were named All-SEC a combined eight times, three players were named to the SEC All-Freshman team and two were selected for the SEC All-Defensive unit during White's tenure.

Florida recorded 21 wins during White's first campaign in Gainesville, matching the program record for a first-year head coach. The Gators posted their first top-10 win in nearly five years by topping ninth-ranked West Virginia in the SEC/Big 12 Challenge and captured their first road victory ever against a Big Ten program by defeating Ohio State in the NIT.

White led Florida to the "Elite Eight" and 27 victories during his second season, just the eighth time in program history the Gators won as many games. In addition, White's two-season tally of 48 wins ranked as the fourth-most in SEC history. While leading the Gators to a successful campaign on the floor, White and his staff also put together a 2017 recruiting class ranked ninth nationally by ESPN that included three top-10 prospects.

In 2017-18, Florida tied for the most wins over top-25 teams nationally, knocking off six ranked foes. The Gators followed that with a late-season surge in 2018-19. After starting 12-11, Florida finished 20-16 and upset a pair of ranked foes in postseason play – No. 9 LSU in the SEC Tournament and No. 20 Nevada in the NCAA Tournament.

White collected his 100th win at Florida during the 2019-20 season. His pace of 158 games to reach that milestone was second-fastest in program history only to Billy Donovan's 154 contests. The Gators were denied a fourth-straight NCAA bid due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but they quickly continued their streak of reaching – and winning – during "March Madness" in 2021. Florida's NCAA bid in 2021 was even more impressive considering Keyontae Johnson, the Preseason SEC Player of the Year, suffered a medical emergency in the fourth game of the season and did not return to action.

A RECORD-SETTING PACE AT LOUISIANA TECH

At Louisiana Tech, White's produced the best winning percentage (.716) of any coach in the program's history as he led the Bulldogs to the Western Athletic Conference regular-season crown in 2013 before winning back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2014 and 2015. The Bulldogs reached the NIT in each of those campaigns and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2014 and 2015. In NIT play, Louisiana Tech recorded a trio of impressive road victories, toppling Florida State in 2013, Georgia in 2014 and Texas A&M in 2015.

White was named WAC Coach of the Year in 2013 and Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2015. He coached the 2015 C-USA Player of the Year, two WAC Newcomers of the Year, the 2014 C-USA Sixth Man of the Year and the 2014 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, four Bulldogs combined to earn nine All-Conference certificates during that span.

White's most impressive coaching effort in Ruston may have been with his first team. Louisiana Tech started 8-10 before going 10-6 the rest of the way and advancing to the championship game of the WAC Tournament. The Bulldogs then went 83-24 over the next three seasons under White.

FROM PRO PLAYER TO STUDENT TO ASSISTANT COACH

White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss and helped the Rebels to a pair of SEC West titles, three NCAA Tournament appearances and the school's first-ever "March Madness" victory. White excelled off the court as well, earning a spot on two SEC Academic Honor Rolls and being named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team.

After being invited to the Utah Jazz's summer training camp, White spent the 1999-2000 season playing professionally for the IBL's New Mexico Slam and in England before returning to Ole Miss in the spring of 2000 to complete his B.A. in business. The day after his last Final Exam, White made the four-hour drive from Oxford to Jacksonville, Ala., to begin his coaching career at Jacksonville State the next day – literally –welcoming recruits to campus.

White spent four years at Jacksonville State and helped the Gamecocks secure their first-ever 20-win season in 2003. He then returned to his alma mater and spent seven successful seasons while developing a reputation as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. White helped the Rebels to four NIT berths, including two runs to the NIT Final Four, and SEC West titles in 2007 and 2010.

BORN AND MARRIED INTO ATHLETIC FAMILIES

Though he was born in Dunedin, Fla., White lived all around the U.S. as his father's career in athletic administration progressed. His dad, Kevin, was the Athletic Director at Duke from 2008 until he retired at the end of August 2021 Previously, Kevin was AD at Loras College (1982-87), Maine (1987-91), Tulane (1991-96), Arizona State (1996-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-08).

Both of Mike's brothers and one of his sisters are also in college athletics.

His brother Danny became the AD at Tennessee in 2021 after serving in the same role at Buffalo from 2012-15 and UCF from 2015-21. He played basketball at Towson and Notre Dame.

His brother Brian has been the AD at Florida Atlantic since 2018. He was Deputy AD for external relations at Missouri before moving to Boca Raton.

His sister Mariah (Chappell) is Assistant AD for Administration at SMU, where she has worked since 2017. She was a swimmer at Duke.

White is married to the former Kira Zschau, who was an All-SEC volleyball player at Ole Miss and also has a law degree from Ole Miss. They have five children – two daughters, Rylee and Maggie; twin boys, Collin and Keegan; and another son, Dillon.

ANTONIO REYNOLDS DEAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • 1ST SEASON • RHODE ISLAND '99

Atlanta native Antonio Reynolds Dean was named Associate Head Coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on April 12, 2022.

From his time as a standout post player at one of Georgia's premier high school programs to the anchor of the winningest class in his college alma mater's history to stops throughout his coaching career, Reynolds Dean's career has consistently featured winning teams and postseason play.

Dean spent five seasons at Clemson from 2017-22, helping the Tigers to a pair of NCAA Tournament bids and an NIT appearance. He also helped coach Rhode Island to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2017 and Northeastern to a pair of NIT invites in 2010 and 2013.

In his first season at Clemson, the Tigers equaled the school record for victories, posting a 25-10 mark and advancing to the "Sweet 16" round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament for the first time in more than two decades. Clemson reached the NIT's round of 16 and finished 20-14 in 2019, just the sixth time in school history the Tigers recorded back-to-back 20-win campaigns. Clemson earned another invitation to "March Madness" in 2021 when the Tigers tied for fifth in the ACC standings.

Individually, the Tigers' post players thrived under Reynolds Dean. In 2020, Aamir Simms averaged career highs and team bests of 13.0 points and 7.2 rebounds and also led the Tigers in assists and blocks. He repeated leading Clemson in points (13.4 ppg), rebounds (6.4 rpg) and assists – the only player ever in ACC history to do so twice – in 2021. Elijah Thomas was named to the ACC's All-Defensive team in 2018 and 2019. P.J. Hall upped his scoring average from 3.5 ppg as a freshman to 15.5 ppg as a sophomore in 2021-22.

Reynolds Dean spent two years as an assistant coach at Rhode Island, where he also was one of the Rams' greatest players ever. In his final season on the staff, the Rams finished 25-10 overall and won the Atlantic-10 Tournament title, their first since his Reynolds Dean's senior year in 1999. The Rams then defeated Creighton in the NCAA Tournament before falling to Oregon, an eventual Final Four participant, 75-72 in the round of 32.

While Reynolds Dean was at Rhode Island, he worked with Hassan Martin, the A-10 Defensive Player of the Year in both 2016 and 2017.

Prior to his stint at Rhode Island, Reynolds Dean was an assistant coach at the College of Charleston for the 2014-15 season and at Northeastern for five campaigns from 2009-14. During his tenure with the Huskies, Reynolds Dean helped lead Northeastern to the 2013 CAA regular-season title and bids to the 2010 and 2013 NITs. He spent the 2008-09 campaign at Fairfield as the Director of Basketball Operations.

As a player, Reynolds Dean was a two-time all-state performer at Atlanta's Frederick Douglass High. He averaged a double-double during each of those seasons, scoring 24.6 points and 15.5 rebounds as a senior after contributing 23.0 points and 13.0 boards as a junior.

Reynolds Dean enjoyed a standout career at Rhode Island, where he was the 1996 Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year and an All-Atlantic 10 selection in 1999. He helped lead the Rams to 85 wins over four seasons, including a then-school record 25 victories in 1998. Rhode Island earned three NCAA Tournament bids during his career, highlighted by a trip to the 1998 "Elite Eight."

Reynolds Dean became just the third player in school history to record 1,000 points and rebounds. Among career leaders, he wrapped up his eligibility as the school record holder for games played (131) and also ranked No. 9 in points (1,576), No. 3 in rebounds (1,028) and No. 2 in blocks (235).

A 2015 inductee into the URI Athletic Hall of Fame, Reynolds Dean is the only person in Rhode Island men's basketball history to play on and coach for an Atlantic 10 Championship team.

Professionally, Reynolds Dean averaged 18.7 points and a league-leading 12.2 rebounds with the Dakota Wizards of the International Basketball League (IBL) in 1999-2000. After being named the IBL's Rookie of the Year in 2000, he played eight seasons overseas in Spain and Argentina.

Reynolds Dean earned a bachelor's degree in Education with an emphasis in Human Development and Family Studies from Rhode Island in 1999. In 2012, he added a master's in Sports Leadership from Northeastern.

Reynolds Dean is married for the former Donna Carr, who played volleyball for Georgia in the 1990s. He is the proud father of two daughters, Jasmine and Naomi.

Erik Pastrana (pronounced puh-strah-nuh) was named an assistant coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on March 28, 2022.

"Erik is exceptional with his interrelational skills and his ability to connect young men," head coach Mike White said. "He's got a great work ethic with regards to recruiting and skill development."

Pastrana spent the 2021-22 season as a member of White's staff at Florida and also has successful Division I coaching stints at Oklahoma State, Florida Atlantic, Florida International and Stephen F. Austin.

"I am beyond excited to join Coach White at the University of Georgia," Pastrana said. "I share the same vision as Coach White in seeing the limitless potential of Georgia Basketball. Now, it's time to get to work and build something special that Georgia fans everywhere can be proud of."

Pastrana helped the Gators post a 20-14 record and reach the second round of the 2022 NIT.

Pastrana spent the two seasons prior to that as an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. He helped the Cowboys sign the No. 4 recruiting class in 2020 that included Cade Cunningham, the 2021 Big 12 Player of the Year and a first-team All-American who went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft.

In 2021, the Cowboys advanced to the finals of the Big 12 Tournament, earned a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 11 by the Associated Press – all firsts since 2005. Oklahoma State's first-round win in the NCAA Tournament was its first since 2009.

Prior to his stint in Stillwater, Pastrana coached at three schools in Florida, his home state.

In 2018-19, he was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic working under first-year head coach Dusty May, one of three former Mike White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches.

Pastrana was head coach at Daytona State College for the 2017-18 season, where he led the Falcons to a 19-12 record and had four players named to the Mid-Florida All-Conference Team.

A Miami native and Cuban American who is a member of the Latino Association of Basketball Coaches, Pastrana spent the 2016-17 campaign in his hometown as an assistant coach at FIU.

Pastrana also was an assistant coach for three seasons at Stephen F. Austin. During his tenure, the Lumberjacks won three consecutive Southland Conference Championships, produced three straight Southland Players of the Year and earned NCAA Tournament victories over VCU in 2014 and West Virginia in 2016. The 89 wins that staff accrued tied for the most by any coaching staff in its first three campaigns in NCAA history.

Pastrana began his career as a graduate assistant under Frank Martin at Kansas State from 2007-09. While at K-State, the Wildcats won 21 games each season, earned a pair of postseason bids, notched their first NCAA Tournament win in a decade in 2008 and saw freshman Michael Beasley selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2008 NBA Draft.

Following his experience with the Wildcats, Pastrana worked as an assistant coach at Labette Community College in Parsons, Kans., and Northwest Florida State College in Niceville, Fla. At NWFSC, Pastrana helped lead the Raiders to a 30-4 record and an appearance in the NJCAA National Championship game.

On top of his collegiate experience, Pastrana has also coached two highly respected AAU programs, the Florida Rams and KC Run GMC.

Pastrana earned a bachelor's degree in history from Florida State in 2007 and a master's degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2009.

AKEEM MISKDEEN

ASSISTANT COACH • 1ST SEASON • QUEENS '08

Akeem Miskdeen (pronounced mis-cuh-deen) was named as assistant basketball coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on March 25, 2022.

Miskdeen arrived in Athens with 13 seasons of coaching experience after successful stints at Florida, Florida Atlantic, Kent State and Hampton. He helped each of the aforementioned schools reach postseason competition. All told, Miskdeen's teams have earned postseason bids in seven of 12 opportunities to do so, including six of the last eight campaigns.

"Akeem demonstrates all of the values that you look for in someone you want to work with," head coach Mike White said. "He's a great human being, relentless worker, good coach and recruiter but most of all a tremendous mentor to young men."

"My family and I are extrexmely grateful and excited to join Coach White at the University of Georgia," Miskdeen said. "I'm looking forward to helping build something special that our student-athletes, student body, alums, fans and the Athens community will be proud of."

Miskdeen spent last season at Florida with White, where the Gators finished 20-14 and reached the second round of the NIT.

Miskdeen was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic for three seasons from 2018-21. He helped lead the Owls to three-consecutive winning records, a feat FAU had accomplished just once before in program history (1989-92). In 2019, the Owls reached the CIT, their first postseason appearance in eight years, and senior guard Anthony Adger earned All-Conference USA honors after increasing his scoring by 9.7 points per game from the previous season. Miskdeen also served as acting head coach for two games during the 2020-21 season while head coach Dusty May was sidelined due to health and safety protocols.

Prior to his tenure in Boca Raton, Miskdeen helped coach teams to three straight NCAA Tournament bids while at Hampton (2015 and 2016) and Kent State (2017).

Kent State recorded 39 wins during Miskdeen's two years with the Golden Flashes. In his initial season, he played a vital role in the breakout campaign of Jaylin Walker, who more than doubled his scoring average to 15.8 points per game and posted a 30-point performance in the 2017 MAC Championship game to earn tourney MVP honors. The following year, Miskdeen worked extensively with Jalen Avery, who led the nation in assist to turnover ratio.

Miskdeen came to Kent State after spending five seasons at Hampton from 2011-16, joining the staff as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach after two campaigns. He was also the Pirates' recruiting coordinator and played a key role in recruiting first-team All-MEAC guards Quinton Chievous and Reginald Johnson, Jr. from his hometown of Chicago.

Miskdeen helped guide the Pirates to postseason bids in each of his final three seasons, including back-to-back NCAA Tournaments. In 2015, Hampton was the sixth seed in the MEAC Tournament but won four games in six days to secure a "March Madness" bid. The Pirates then upset Manhattan in a "First Four" match-up in Dayton for the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament victory. In 2016, Hampton finished 21-11, earning its first regular-season MEAC title since 2002 and capturing a second-straight conference tourney title before falling to Virginia in the NCAA Tournament's round of 64.

In addition, Miskdeen spent the 2008-09 season as Hampton's director of basketball operations before one-year stops at Mount Olive College and Wingate University, Division-II schools in North Carolina. In 2010, Miskdeen helped guide Mount Olive to a 25-6 finish and an NCAA Tournament bid.

As a student-athlete, Miskdeen spent two years at Laramie County (Wyo.) Community College from 2004-06 before transferring to Queens University in Charlotte, N.C. from 2006-08. Miskdeen served as team captain both years at Laramie, and he finsished his career as the school's all-time assists leader. At Queens, Miskdeen was a two-time Defensive MVP and led Queens to back-to-back NCAA Division II Tournament appearances.

Miskdeen is a 2008 graduate of Queens with a bachelor of arts in Corporate Communication and earned a master's in Sports Administration from Hampton in 2016. Miskdeen is married to the former Lasherra Joyner. They are proud parents of a daughter, Skylar.

BRYCE DOUGLAS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE COACH/DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING
1ST SEASON • PUGET SOUND '09

Bryce Douglas was named Special Assistant to the Head Coach and Director of Scouting for Georgia Basketball on April 7, 2022.

Douglas joined the Bulldogs after spending five seasons at Florida. His résumé also includes experience working with Duke's 2015 NCAA Championship team, two seasons with the Phoenix Suns and assisting USA Basketball training camps leading up to the 2016 Olympics. Following the Rio Games, Douglas was among only 50 individuals with the combined experiences of working with a collegiate national champion, an NBA franchise and USA Basketball. That ledger included names such as Michael Jordan, Magic Johnson, Bill Russell, Patrick Ewing and Grant Hill.

"Bryce has a huge work capacity and a unmatched passion for basketball," White said. "He's become very integral relative to our scouting efforts and more. His roles are diverse and numbered."

Douglas was the Gators' Director of Scouting for three seasons before being promoted to Special Assistant Coach for his final two campaigns in Gainesville. His duties included coordination of self-scouting and oversight of the program's video staff, as well as assisting with developing the Gators' offensive playbook. During his tenure, Florida advanced to postseason play each season possible, with bids to the 2018, 2019 and 2021 NCAA Tournaments and to the 2022 NIT. In addition, the Gators were a consensus pick for an NCAA bid in 2020 before the season ended prematurely.

From 2015-17, Douglas made significant contributions as a scout/analyst for the Suns. He created and implemented new opponent scouting templates for team and coaches meetings, as well as self-scouting materials incorporated into the team's daily workflow. Douglas also assisted with on-court player development workouts throughout the season.

Douglas also assisted with USA Basketball mini camps during the Senior National Team's prep for the 2016 Olympics. His duties included assisting with on-court drills and workouts along with additional video and operational tasks.

Douglas spent the 2014-15 season as an assistant video coordinator at Duke, primarily focusing on opponent and self-scouting breakdowns. That season, the Blue Devils captured the NCAA Championship and finished 35-4.

Douglas was an assistant coach at Whitman College from 2011-13. The Blues compiled a 37-16 record during that span, producing their best back-to-back records ever. From 2009-11, Douglas was a video coordinator and graduate assistant at the University of San Diego. As a player, Douglas helped the University of Puget Sound reach the D-III "Elite Eight" in 2006 and "Sweet 16" in 2009. A native of Tacoma, Wash., Douglas graduated from Puget Sound in 2009 with degrees in Psychology and Business. He earned a master's in Leadership Studies from San Diego in 2011.

BEN GONZALEZ

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
1ST SEASON • FLORIDA '17

Ben Gonzalez was named the Director of Operations for Georgia Basketball in April 2022.

Gonzalez arrived in Athens after spending the past four seasons in the same role at Florida Atlantic. He also was an undergraduate and graduate manager at Florida for three years during head coach Mike White's first three seasons with the Gators from 2015-18.

"I'm looking forward to working with Ben again," White said. "He was a tremendous student manager for us at UF and enjoyed breakthrough success at FAU. He's very driven and intense in his tasks."

"I am very honored and excited to be able to work for Coach White again," Gonzalez said. "I think of Coach White and many others on our staff as family, and I am grateful to be working with such high-quality people."

Gonzalez joined the FAU staff in 2018 shortly after the introduction of head coach Dusty May, one of three former White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches. Gonzalez's responsibilities at Georgia mirror his duties the Owls, where he managed the team's budget and travel, developed and organized itineraries for recruiting official visits and recruited and developed the team's student managers. In addition, he played a major role in the staging of summer team and individual camps.

While a student at Florida, Gonzalez worked with White during his first three seasons as the Gators' head coach. He spent two years as an undergraduate manager before serving as a graduate manager for the 2017-18 campaign. During that time, Florida recorded 68 wins, advancing to the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, the 2017 NCAA "Elite Eight" and the 2018 NCAA round of 32.

Gonzalez also was active in the UF Athletic Association's "Blue Shirt" marketing organization in 2014 and 2015. He aided with staging of ESPN's College GameDay and the Gators' "Link to Pink" breast cancer awareness initiative. Gonzalez also took part in the group's football project team that was tasked with developing ideas to enhance fan experience and spark excitement at the Gators' games

Since 2017, Gonzalez has been involved with the Uncommon Sports Group, a faith-based organization founded by former student managers designed to develop leaders in the sports industry. His activities include traveling to Liberia to help lead a three-week sports camp, representing the group at the men's Final Four to attract new members and leading a tour of FAU Athletics facilities for 15 participants selected for an "Impact Trip."

A native of Tampa, Fla., Gonzalez has two degrees from Florida. He earned his bachelor's in Sport Management in three years in 2017 and added a master's in Sport Management a year later. He married the former Alexandra "Alex" Emenecker in June 2022.

CHARLES MANN

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING
1ST SEASON • GEORGIA '16

Charles Mann, one of the most successful players in Georgia history, returned to his alma mater as the Bulldogs' Director of Recruiting in April 2022.

"Charles knows what it takes to be a successful student-athlete at this level," head coach Mike White said. "He is extremely proud to be a Georgia Bulldog and in many ways has lived the experience we want for all of our players. I'm confident he'll make a major impact within our program."

Mann played in 132 games between 2012-16, the most ever by a four-year player, and is one of only 12 Bulldogs ever to play on three 20-win teams.

"It's a surreal feeling that still seems like a dream," Mann said. "Coming home means more than anything. It's not just the next job – it's my dream job."

Mann spent the three seasons at Army and VCU before coming to Athens.

In 2021-22, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cadets, who finished 15-16. He aided the development of Jalen Rucker, who averaged ranked fourth in the Patriot League in scoring (17.1 ppg), as well as second in 3-pointers, seventh in free throw percentage and ninth in assists.

Mann was a graduate assistant at VCU for two seasons, helping the Rams earn an at-large bid to the 2021 NCAA Tournament after finishing second in the Atlantic-10 and reaching the championship game of the A-10 Tournament.

Mann was selected by the Oklahoma City Blue in the second round of the 2016 NBA G-League Draft. He played in Canada in 2016-17 and averaged 15.0 points for Cape Breton before contributing 15.9 points for AB Contern in Luxembourg in 2017-18.

At Georgia, Mann started 106 of 132 games, including 98 of 100 over his final three seasons. He was named to the SEC's All-Freshman team in 2013 and was tabbed second-team All-SEC by league coaches in 2014.

Mann owns the Bulldogs' career records for free throws made (618) and attempted (896). He ranks second in SEC history in trips to the charity stripe – behind only "Pistol" Pete Maravich. Among Georgia's career leaders, Mann finished ranked No. 13 in scoring (1,411 points) and No. 5 in assists (400). He helped Georgia reach postseason play three times, with a trip to the 2015 NCAA Tourney between bids to the 2014 and 2016 NITs, and averaged 19.4 points over six NCAA and NIT contests.

Originally from Queens, N.Y., Mann was a three-time All-State performer in high school, earning second-team honors in Class 5A as a senior at Milton after securing honorable mention status in Class 4A as a sophomore and junior at Union Grove. As a senior, he helped Milton capture the 2012 Georgia 5A state title and earn a consensus top-10 finish nationally.

Mann earned his bachelor's degree in Housing Management and Policy from Georgia in 2016 and added a master's in Education for Sports Leadership from VCU in 2021.

JULIE DANIELSON

VIDEO COORDINATOR
1ST SEASON • WISCONSIN '17

Julie Danielson joined the Georgia Basketball Staff as video coordinator in April 2022.

All told, Danielson brought nine seasons of college basketball experience with her to UGA, six at Wisconsin and the last three at Florida.

"Julie is very familiar with how we operate as it relates to team and player film coordination," head coach Mike White said. "She's a relentless worker and provides incredible positive energy."

"I'm extremely blessed and grateful to join Coach White and the staff at the University of Georgia," Danielson said. "It's an honor to be part of such a prestigious university and athletic department as I make the next step in my career. Coach White has described the potential of this program as limitless, and I agree. I'm excited to be a part of that growth."

Danielson was the video coordinator for Florida Basketball last season after serving as a scouting assistant from 2019-2021. The Gators reached the postseason during her first and final seasons in Gainesville, with bids to the 2019 NCAA Tournament and the 2022 NIT. In addition, Florida was projected to receive an invitation to the NCAA Tournament in 2020 before the postseason was canceled.

In her first two seasons with the Gators, Danielson provided specialized videos and projects for the coaching staff while also creating postgame reports using both video and analytics. She was promoted to video coordinator in April 2021, expanding her role to include managing the program's scouting assistants and live-cutting all home games, assisting with organization and presentation of scouting video and materials for opponents.

Prior to her time at Florida, Danielson spent six years at Wisconsin, four as a student manager from 2013-17 and two as a graduate manager from 2017-19. In addition, she served as a camp coach and all-purpose assistant for Wisconsin's summer camps for five years and volunteered in the Badgers' football recruiting office in 2018.

During Danielson's tenure, the Badgers recorded a 155-64 record and secured five NCAA Tournament bids. Headlining that ledger is the 2015 campaign when Wisconsin finished 37-4, won the Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles and finished as runner-up at the Final Four. The Badgers also reached the Final Four in 2014 and advanced to the "Sweet 16" in both 2016 and 2017.

Danielson, who is a native of Hayward, Wis., earned two degrees from Wisconsin, a bachelor's in Legal Studies in 2017 and a master's in Educational Leadership with a specialization in Athletic Administration in 2019.

COLLIN CRANE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
1ST SEASON • CARSON-NEWMAN '13

Collin Crane was named Director of Athletic Performance for Georgia Men's Basketball on May 12, 2022.

Crane sports 10 seasons of experience, including stints within the SEC at Mississippi State and Florida. During that span, teams with Crane on their strength and conditioning staff earned postseason bids in seven of nine possible years and averaged 22.8 wins per season.

Crane has spent the past five seasons at Mississippi State, helping the Bulldogs earn postseason bids each year possible. In addition, the Bulldogs were a lock for a postseason invitation in 2020 when they were an NCAA bubble team before the tournament was canceled. Three MSU players during Crane's tenure were on NBA rosters during the 2021-22 season – Reggie Perry (Portland Trail Blazers), Quinndary Weatherspoon (Golden State Warriors) and Robert Woodard II (San Antonio Spurs).

Crane was one of the first strength coaches to partner with Mississippi State's Athlete Engineering Program. The multidisciplinary research collaboration between the university's academic and athletic departments explores human performance, processes and analysis. Since the initiative started, Crane has co-authored multiple peer-reviewed studies on various topics which include force plate analysis and wearable technology in addition to basketball shoe design and assessment.

Prior to his tenure in Starkville, Crane worked at Chattanooga (2015-17), Missouri State (2014-15) and Florida (2012-14). In two seasons at Chattanooga, the Mocs compiled 48 victories, swept the Southern Conference regular-season and tournament titles and earned an NCAA Tournament bid in 2016. He worked with the men's basketball, tennis and golf programs at Missouri State in 2014-15 and also spent two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2012-14. While in Gainesville, the Gators made runs to the 2013 Elite Eight and the 2014 Final Four, and Crane organized NBA Draft training regimens for standouts such as Bradley Beal, Chandler Parsons, Eric Murphy and Patric Young.

Crane played basketball at Carson-Newman University, where he was a four-year starter and three-time captain. Crane ranked fifth in career starts for the Eagles when he graduated. As a senior, Crane helped Carson-Newman to a 20-8 record, the program's first 20-win campaign in a decade. Following the season, Carson-Newman renamed the program's leadership honor the Collin Crane Leadership Award.

Crane earned his bachelor's in Exercise Science from Carson-Newman in 2013 and his master's in Food Science, Nutrition and Health Promotion from Mississippi State in 2020. Crane is married to the former Courtney Lawson. They have two children: a son, Carson, and a daughter, Miller.

LANCE SCHUEMANN

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER
5TH SEASON • FLORIDA '07

Lance Schuemann joined the UGA Athletic Association's Sports Medicine staff in July 2018 as an associate athletic trainer. His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the Georgia Basketball program.

Prior to joining the Georgia staff, Schuemann spent the previous five seasons as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball and women's golf programs at the University of Wyoming. His efforts in Laramie helped translate to an extremely successful run for the Cowboys on the hardwood. Wyoming averaged 20 wins per season and reached postseason play three times from 2013-18. Most notably, the Cowboys won the 2015 Mountain West Conference Tournament to secure an NCAA Tournament bid. They also won the 2017 College Basketball Invitational (CBI) title.

Schuemann was the athletic trainer for the men's basketball and women's tennis teams at Charleston Southern University for two seasons from 2011-13 before moving on to Wyoming.

Schuemann served as an intern athletic trainer at the University of Florida, his alma mater, during the 2010-11 academic year. He worked with the men's basketball and men's tennis programs, which reached the "Elite Eight" and Round of 16 of their respective NCAA Tournaments that year. In addition, Schuemann was an approved clinical instructor while in Gainesville.

From 2008-10, Schuemann was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Valparaiso University. There his responsibilities were primarily with football and baseball. Before joining the Crusaders' staff, he also worked as an intern athletic trainer with the Florida Marlins during the spring of 2008.

A native of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., Schuemann received his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Florida in Dec. 2007. He worked as a student athletic trainer for the Gators' men's basketball team that won the 2007 NCAA Championship. Schuemann also earned his master's in Sports Administration from Valparaiso in May 2010.

Schuemann's impressive list of certifications include: Corrective Exercise Specialist from the National Association of Sports Medicine (NASM), Board Certification from the National Athletic Trainer Association (NATA), CPR/AED from the American Red Cross and Level 1 status from the Titleist Performance Institute.

Schuemann married Tracy Campbell, the former athletic trainer for Vanderbilt Baseball, in October of 2021.

CASEY REED

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT
1ST SEASON • FLORIDA '10

Casey Reed joined the Georgia Basketball staff as the Executive Assistant in May 2022 after spending a decade working within the spirit programs at the University of Florida.

Reed handles a vast list of job responsibilities for the Bulldogs, managing different aspects of the program's office, facility, travel and budget needs. In addition, she also coordinates Georgia Basketball's outreach efforts within the Athletic Association, the Athens community and with former players; serves as a liaison to the promotions, marketing and fan engagement departments; and aids with the Ultimate Guide to Achievement (UGA) initiative to provide players with off-court development opportunities on topics such as financial literacy, community service, social awareness and career development.

From 2012-22, Reed served as the coordinator for Florida's Dazzlers dance team and mascots, with the focal point of enhancing the game day atmosphere for students and alumni at Gator athletic competitions. She also served as liaison between the men's basketball program and the Tip Off Club, its support group, concerning meeting programming, guest speakers, team relations and compliance procedure execution.

During her tenure in Gainesville, Reed managed all travel, equipment purchasing and scholarship distribution for the Gators' spirit squads. Additional duties included coordinating more than 300 internal and external appearance requests for the spirit program, developing and executing various partnership and trade contracts for the spirit teams and assisting with activation of sponsorship-related requirements for the spirit in association with IMG. She also operated multiple "Jr. Spirit Day" camps to raise revenue for the spirit programs and build community involvement.

Reed earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Entomology from Florida in 2010 and 2014, respectively. She was a member of the Dazzlers Dance Team throughout her four years as an undergraduate, serving as the team's co-captain from 2007-09 and captain from 2009-10.

After securing her bachelor's degree, Reed served as an intern at the Walt Disney World Resort from 2010-11. She worked within the "Living with the Land" attraction inside EPCOT and conducted daily "Behind the Seeds Tours," providing guests within an interactive insight at EPCOT's greenhouses, labs and aquaculture facilities.

Reed returned to Gainesville and was a graduate assistant within the school's Entomology program from 2011-14. Her professional experience also includes serving as a judge for Varsity Spirit cheerleading competitions across the country in 2016 and 2017.

JORDAN LANGE

DIRECTOR OF CREATIVE SERVICES & SOCIAL MEDIA
2ND SEASON • UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN-FLINT '12

Jordan Lange joined the UGA Athletic Association as Director of Creative Services and Social Media for Georgia Basketball in the summer of 2021. He arrived in Athens after previous stints at Oregon State and Wyoming.

From 2019-21, Lange was the director of graphic design for Oregon State's football program. He created and maintained brand guidelines, while developing a unique and consistent brand for the Beavers. Lange worked with OSU's videographers, photographers and social media team to tell story of OSU football. Those efforts featured personalized recruiting campaigns, as well as creating all other internal and external materials.

Lange was director of graphic design at Wyoming from 2018-19. There he coordinated and monitored projects within the design team to create engaging content for Wyoming's 13 different athletic programs. Those efforts included social media content, printed materials and recruiting graphics. Lange also developed and managed the athletic association's first project management system for its graphic efforts.

Prior to working in college athletics, Lange was a senior graphic designer for Diplomat Specialty Pharmacy in Flint, Mich., from 2016-18. In addition to creating digital, printed and video materials, he taught classes to employees on utilizing product management methodologies to keep projects on track, providing updates and transparency to daily progress.

A native of Davison, Mich., Lange graduated from the University of Michigan-Flint with a bachelor's degree in Graphic Design in 2012.

Jordan and his wife, Kayla, have three sons – Bentley, Blaine and Beau.

REESE BELL

GRADUATE MANAGER • GEORGIA '22

Reese Bell is in his third season working with Georgia Basketball and his first in a graduate assistant role.

A native of Dawson, Ga., Bell was a two-sport standout at Terrell Academy as a prep athlete. He was a four-year letterwinner in both basketball and football and started at shooting guard and quarterback as a junior and a senior. He was named All-State and All-Region in football as a senior after passing for 2,319 yards, rushing for 384 yards and scoring nine touchdowns while leading the Eagles to the semifinals of the GISA Class AA state tournament. Bell also earned All-Region honors in basketball.

Bell began his collegiate career at Georgia Southern before transferring to the University of North Georgia's Oconee Campus. He transferred to UGA in 2019 and served as a manager for the Bulldogs during the 2019-20 season. After spending a year away from the program, he returned as a manager for the 2021-22 campaign and transitioned into his current role as a graduate manager last summer.

Bell received his bachelor's degree in Sport Management and Policy from Georgia in 2022 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in Sport Management and Policy.

KENNY GAINES

GRADUATE MANAGER • GEORGIA '16

Kenny Gaines returned to his alma mater as a graduate manager in the summer of 2022. Gaines was an electrifying guard for the Bulldogs from 2012-16 and helped lead Georgia to three consecutive 20-win seasons for only the second time in the program's 100-plus seasons of competition.

A Parade All-American honors and the 2012 Georgia Class A Player of the Year at Whitefield Academy, Gaines came off the bench as a freshman before starting 96 of 98 games during his sophomore, junior and senior campaigns.

Gaines finished his career ranked No. 19 among Georgia's career scoring leaders with 1,324 points, as well as No. 4 in 3-pointers (213), No. 4 in 3-point attempts (569) and No. 7 in 3-point percentage (.374). He also is third among UGA's single-season 3-pointer leaders, connecting on 85 during his senior year. Gaines also set the school record for scoring the highest percentage of points by a Bulldog in a game when he accounted for 35 of Georgia's 63 points (55.6 percent) in a 63-52 victory over Murray State on Nov. 20, 2016.

Gaines earned his bachelor's degree in Housing Management and Policy from Georgia in 2016. His professional career that included stints with the Houston Rockets in the NBA Summer League and in Europe in France, Italy and Lithuania. Gaines, whose son Christian was born in 2021, is pursuing his master's in Nonprofit Management and Leadership.

JUSTIN COUSIN

GRADUATE MANAGER • RADFORD '18

Justin Cousin joined the Georgia staff in June of 2022 after serving in a similar role at Radford, his alma mater, during the 2021-22 campaign.

Cousin was a four-year letterwinner for the Highlanders from 2013-18 and wrapped up his career ranked seventh in program history in games played with 127 outings. He was a key piece of the 2018 Big South Championship squad that recorded the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history. The son of former Highlander standout Rod Cousin, his best season came as a junior in 2016-17 when he started all 32 games and contributed 11.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.0 assists per game.

After graduating from Radford in 2018 with a bachelor's degree in Business Management, Cousin played professionally for the Taranaki Airs in New Plymouth, New Zealand during 2018-19. He averaged 11.3 points and was named Team Man of the Year, an award voted on by coaches and teammates for exemplifying the qualities of a team leader. While in New Zealand, he also served as a volunteer youth coach at Stratford Primary School.

Cousin then returned to his hometown of Burlington, N.C., to work as a counselor for at-risk youths in the area. He also served as a 5th grade teacher and middle school basketball coach at Positive Day School. Cousin is pursuing a master's in Nonprofit Management and Leadership.

DEE MITCHELL

GRADUATE MANAGER • OKLAHOMA STATE '22

Dee Mitchell, a three-year letterwinner for the Oklahoma State Cowboys, is in his first season as a graduate manager with the Bulldogs.

Mitchell joined the Cowboys' roster as a walk-on in January 2019 and played in five games that season, highlighted by a clutch 3-pointer at No. 11 Texas Tech to help force overtime. After playing in 19 contests in 2019-20, including a pair of starts against Houston and Minnesota, he played in six games during Oklahoma State's 21-9 campaign in 2020-21 which culminated with an NCAA bid and the Cowboys being ranked No. 11 in the final AP poll.

Mitchell drew national attention in January 2021 when head coach Mike Boynton surprised him with the news that he was going to be placed on scholarship while he was at his full-time job at Walmart.

Mitchell was the 2018 District 16-3A MVP at Jefferson (Texas) High School after averaging 20.5 points, 4.7 rebounds and 2.7 steals. He helped the Bulldogs compile a combined 51-14 record and back-to-back perfect 14-0 district marks as a junior and a senior. Mitchell also was a first-team all-district performer in football with 97 tackles and six interceptions as a senior.

Mitchell earned his bachelor's degree in Sports & Coaching Science from Oklahoma State in 2022 and is pursuing a master's in Kinesiology (Sport Pedagogy) at Georgia.

He is also the liaison between the Athletic Association and the Redcoat Marching Band and all other athletic bands.

Bateman joined the Georgia promotions office on a full-time basis in 1994 and served as Assistant Director for three years. He was promoted to Associate Director in 1997 before being named the Director in 2004. Bateman was promoted once again in 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director, and he also received oversight as the sport administrator for the men's basketball program at that time.

Bateman is a "double-dog" with two degrees from University of Georgia – a bachelor's in Business Administration in 1991 and master's Sport Management in 1993. As an undergraduate, he served as a manager for the men's basketball team, including UGA's 1990 SEC Championship squad. The Bulldogs reached postseason play during three of Bateman's four years with the team, including the 1987 and 2000 NCAA Tournaments and the 1988 NIT.

Bateman began his professional career by working as the championships and officiating assistant at the Southeastern Conference from 1993-94 before returning to his alma mater in 1994.

A native of Albany, Ga., Bateman is married to the former Jill Sirmans, a native of Valdosta, Ga. He is a huge fans of the Atlanta Braves and an avid walker/runner who has run the last 15 editions of the Peachtree Road Race.

DARRICE GRIFFIN

SENIOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

Darrice Griffin was named Senior Deputy Director of Athletics on January 1, 2021, after serving as Deputy Director of Athletics of Administration at UGA since December 2017. Griffin's responsibilities have included the day-to-day oversight responsibilities for some internal operations including Human Resources and strategic organizational advancement of the Athletics Association. She also serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Sports Facilitator for several sports programs. In addition, Griffin represents the Athletics Association within various SEC and institutional leadership groups.

Griffin previously served as a senior member of the athletic administration at the University of Massachusetts from 2015-17. She served as Deputy Director of Athletics from July 2017-December 2017, after holding the position of Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations for two years. Additionally, Griffin was also the department's Senior Woman Administrator during her entire tenure in Amherst.

As Deputy Director at UMass she oversaw day-to-day operations relating to student-athletes, facilities and competitions, while also serving on numerous campus committees and as the liaison with many campus constituents. Griffin had administrative oversight responsibilities for a number of Minutemen sports, including football, women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, field hockey and softball.

Prior to Amherst, Griffin spent the previous six years (2009-2015) at Columbia University, including the last four as Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sports Programs. With the Lions, Griffin had oversight for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, softball and baseball. She worked alongside the offices of admissions and financial aid, while also assisting in fundraising and development initiatives for both the athletic department at-large and her assigned sport programs. Griffin played a role in several student-athlete initiatives, including Columbia's The First-Year Transition Program and The Leaders for Life Program. Within the University itself, Griffin was an active member of the President's Advisory Committee on Sexual Assault, had a leadership role on the University Bystander Intervention Task Force and played a key role in the University-wide initiative Step-Up.

A native of Seagraves, Texas, Griffin was a standout basketball student-athlete at Texas Tech, graduating in 2007 with cum laude honors in Psychology. She was a four-time recipient of the Texas Tech Student-Athlete Merit Award, a two-time Academic All-Big 12 Conference honoree and was named an Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar in 2007. Griffin comes from an elite basketball family. Her mother, Tami Wilson, played at Texas Tech from 1990-92 and her sister, Teddy, also played for the Lady Raiders from 2005-08. Griffin was the 2004 Gatorade Player of the Year in Texas and also was an All-Texas First-Team selection and a McDonald's All-American.

JOSH BROOKS

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
LSU '02

Josh Brooks was named J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics in January 2021, after serving 11 years in supporting roles at the University of Georgia, most recently as Interim Director of Athletics and Senior Deputy Director of Athletics. At the time of his hiring, Brooks was the youngest AD among the Power Five conferences.

Since Brooks became Athletic Director, UGA has won the 2022 College Football Playoff national championship, the 2021 national title in Equestrian and the 2021 SEC crown in women's tennis. The Bulldogs finished 10th in the 2021 Learfield Directors' Cup and 19th in 2022.

Brooks has hired a number of head coaches, including two national champions – Caryl Smith Gilbert in track & field and Keidane McAlpine in soccer. In addition, Tony Baldwin took over the softball program in 2021, while Stefanie Williams Moreno and Neil Versfeld, two of Georgia's most successful swimmers, were named the head women's and men's swimming and diving coaches, respectively, in 2022.

Academics and community service have been in the forefront of Brooks' administration. A league-best 97 student-athletes were named to the Winter 2022 SEC Academic Honor Roll. Georgia teams have won significant SEC Community Service honors, culminating with Jessica Drop being named the 2021 Brad Davis SEC Community Service Female Leader of the Year. The "Dawgs for Pups" campaign, initiated by the football team, has undertaken several community service projects, including the donation of ticket revenue from the G-Day spring football game, totaling $100,000, to Athens-based Downtown Academy.

On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

Despite the loss of ticket sales during the pandemic, Georgia finished the 2020-21 academic year with a balanced budget and impressive fundraising totals. In June, 2022, the Athletic Association launched a $300 million comprehensive fundraising campaign to support key department priorities over the next five years.

With close attention to the game-day experience, Brooks has spearheaded such fan-centric improvements as family-friendly pricing on concessions at all venues, a partnership with Zaxby's to provide the restaurant chain's popular ice and the use of pedestal scanners for quicker entry to Sanford Stadium.

Brooks has also placed great emphasis on the student-athlete experience, with a comprehensive Name, Image and Likeness program, LeGAcy, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training.

Brooks returned to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics after serving as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana-Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15.

Prior to his tenures at Millsaps and ULM, he had served in capacities at UGA as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14). Brooks was director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl and won the 2001 SEC Championship.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks graduated from LSU in 2002 with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA in 2014. He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009, and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

JERE MOREHEAD

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
GEORGIA J.D. '80

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, the University has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising $1.45 billion, and launched an Innovation District initiative to create UGA's campus of the future, where students and faculty will partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to continue the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia. During President Morehead's tenure, UGA has increased its research expenditures by 41% and has been ranked among the top five universities in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years. UGA was ranked No. 1 in the nation for FY2019 and FY2017.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. A UGA education is in greater demand than ever, with a record 39,500 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2025 and an admission rate under 39%.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. He also serves as Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors, a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee, and a member of the NCAA Board of Governors. He previously served on the NCAA Presidential Forum; the Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and the Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He is President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Research Alliance, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

1 JABRI ABDUR-RAHIM

6-8 • 210 • JUNIOR • GUARD • SOUTH ORANGE, N.J.

2021-22 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Represented Georgia Basketball on the SEC Leadership Council in September 2021, June 2022 and September 2022.
- Named to the SEC Community Service Team after leading the Bulldogs' association with the Athens Boys & Girls Clubs.
- One of three Bulldogs to play in every game.
- Started three of the first six games before coming off the bench for the final 26.
- Averaged 6.9 points and 3.2 rebounds in 18.9 minutes per game.
- Notched his first double-digit outing with a perfect night from the field (3-of-3 FGs and 2-of-2 3FGs) en route against 10 points against Georgia Tech.
- Popped a career-high 20 points in 18 minutes against Wofford and bettered his previous career high in the first half alone. Canned a long 3-pointer at the buzzer to finish with 12 points in the opening period.
- Knocked down a 3-pointer with 1:56 left that put Georgia up for good in the Bulldogs' upset of No. 18 Memphis.
- After averaging 2.3 points and shooting 21.4 percent overall and 12.5 percent from 3-point range in his first 14 college basketball games, exploded to average 15.0 points and connect on 65.0 percent from the floor and 60.0 percent from behind the arc in his next three outings against Wofford, Memphis and Jacksonville.
- Recorded his first double-digit scoring output in league play with 13 points at Mississippi State...and then matched that effort in Georgia's victory over Alabama.
- Converted on 10-of-11 trips to the line against the Crimson Tide, equaling the most points scored by any Bulldog at the charity stripe during the season.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Played at UVA as a freshman before transferring to UGA.
- Helped the Cavaliers capture the ACC regular-season title, secure an NCAA Tournament bid and compile records of 18-7 overall and 13-4 in the ACC.
- Logged action in eight contests, four non-conference outings and four ACC affairs.
- Made his collegiate debut in the season opener against Towson, scoring three points in four minutes.
- Clocked a season-most 11 minutes versus Saint Francis, recording his first rebound and assist during that outing.
- Posted his first points in league play with a bucket against Clemson on Jan. 21.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- Coached by Joe Mantegna at the Blair Academy in Blairstown, N.J., as a junior and a senior.
- Named 2019 Gatorade Player of the Year for New Jersey following his junior year.
- Rated as one of the nation's top-50 prospects in the Class of 2020, including No. 38 by both ESPN.com and in the 247Sports.com composite, No. 41 by 247Sports.com and No. 45 by rivals.com.
- A two-time All-State selection, earning first-team recognition as a junior after securing third-team status as a sophomore.
- Twice earned All-America accolades for his class from MaxPreps, securing third-team Freshman All-America honors in 2017 and honorable mention Sophomore All-America recognition in 2018.
- Participated in the 2019 NBPA Top 100 camp and was rated as one of the top five performers by hoopseen.com.
- As a senior, averaged 31.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists in two games of an injury-shortened campaign.
- As a junior, averaged 16.0 points and 8.7 boards per game while leading Blair's Buccaneers to a 28-3 record and the New Jersey Prep A state title.
- Selected second-team All-Mid-Atlantic Prep League as a junior.
- Coached by Kevin Williams at Seton Hall Prep as a freshman and sophomore.
- In two seasons with the Pirates, scored 660 points (14.7 ppg) and grabbed 309 rebounds (6.9 rpg) while also compiling 95 assists, 65 blocks and 45 steals.

2021-22 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Walk-on who played in 31 of 32 games, missing only the Gardner-Webb contest due to back spasms.
- Started 22 contests, including all 18 SEC games and Georgia's SEC Tournament outing.
- Averaged 5.1 points and 2.9 rebounds in 25.3 minutes of playing time per game.
- In Georgia's wins, upped his contributions to 7.0 points per game and shooting efficiency to 53.8 percent from the field.
- Entered the season with career averages of 1.6 ppg, 0.8 rpg and 6.1 mpg before dramatically increasing his 2021-22 contributions to 5.1 ppg (+3.5 ppg), 3.0 rpg (+2.2 rpg) and 25.5 mpg (+19.4 mpg).
- Began the season with a career-high of 20 minutes played but matched or exceeded that total in 28 of 31 outings.
- Finished the season with 30 offensive fouls drawn in 31 games played…and 38 in 42 contests dating back to the 2020-21 campaign. Drew a season-high three charges in games against Ga. Tech, Western Carolina and LSU.
- Recorded his first "unofficial" double-figure scoring output at UGA with 10 points in an exhibition at Charlotte.
- Notched his first career start for Georgia's upset of No. 18 Memphis.
- After playing 177 total minutes as a freshman and a sophomore, logged 188 minutes in the first eight games.
- Missed the non-conference finale against Gardner-Webb but returned to log what was then a career-high 31 minutes in the SEC opener against Texas A&M.
- Led UGA offensively with a career-high 16 points against Vanderbilt, securing his first collegiate double-digit output with 11 points in the first half alone.
- Notched his second double-figure outing with 13 points against No. 1 Auburn in Athens.
- In his double-digit outings against Vandy and Auburn, shot a combined 71.4 percent (10-of-14) from the field and 83.3 percent (5-of-6) from 3-point range.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for the second consecutive year.
- Greatly increased his statistical contributions from those of his freshman year.
- One of two Bulldogs with a higher scoring average in SEC play (3.2 ppg) than overall (2.4 ppg). Also upped his efficiency in conference action, improving from converting 63.0 percent of his shots from the floor to 71.4 percent.
- After playing in nine of 32 games in 2019-20, logged action in six of seven non-conference contests and bettered his previous high for minutes played in four of those contests.
- A key contributor in win over Samford, recording a "+/-" of "+8" in just four minutes of action.

- ◊ Scored on a reverse layup with 1:17 left in the game to give UGA its first lead of the game, which the Bulldogs never relinquished.
- ◊ Saw his playing time increase significantly at the midway point of Southeastern Conference play.
- ◊ After logging a combined eight mop-up minutes in the first eight SEC games (with five DNPs), earned meaningful PT in each of UGA's last 12 outings of the campaign.
- ◊ In five contests from Feb. 6-20 – against Vanderbilt, No. 16/15 Tennessee, No. 11/11 Alabama, Missouri and Florida – scored 34 points, more than four times as many as the eight points he had in his previous 20 career appearances for Georgia.
- ◊ Posted those 34 points while shooting an almost unfathomable 85.7 percent (12-of-14) from the field.
- ◊ Also played 86 minutes in those five outings, versus 60 combined in his first 20 GP.
- ◊ Came within a single point of his first double-figure scoring output in consecutive contests at Alabama and against Missouri in Athens.
- ◊ Enjoyed a perfect shooting night from the floor against Missouri in Athens - 2-of-2 FGs, 1-of-1 3FGs and 4-of-4 FTs.
- ◊ Drew eight charges in the last 11 games, including five in back-to-back outings against Alabama (three) and Mizzou (two).

2019-20 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Walk-on who saw action in nine contests.
- ◊ Logged his first PT against Delaware State, including his first – and only – field goal attempt of the season.
- ◊ Grabbed a steal against Dayton in the Maui Jim Maui Invitational.
- ◊ Four of the nine outings in which he played (N.C. Central, Austin Peay, Mississippi State and South Carolina) featured matching minutes tallies of three MP.

15 JAILYN INGRAM

6-7 • 225 • 7th-YEAR • FORWARD • MADISON, GA.

2021-22 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Averaged 10.7 points and a team-high 6.0 rebounds in the campaign's first nine contests before a season-ending knee injury in the second half of the Jacksonville game on Dec. 7.
- Notched seven double-figure scoring outputs in the first nine contests. Though he did not lead Georgia in scoring in any game, that was the most double-digit performances by any Bulldog at that point in the season.
- Led Georgia in rebounding in four outings, including 12 boards versus Virginia . . . the single-game high by any Bulldog during the 2021-22 campaign.
- Connected on 18-of-20 trips to the free throw line, a sizzling 90.0 percent.
- Started hot at Cincinnati, with 11 of his 13 points coming in the first half.
- Recorded a season-high 17 points in just 21 minutes against Georgia Tech.
- Averaged a double-double of 10.0 points and 10.5 rebounds per game against Virginia and Northwestern in the Legends Classic.
- Suffered a season-ending knee injury at the 14:21 mark of the second half against Jacksonville on Dec. 7.
- An MRI on Dec. 8 confirmed he would have surgery to repair the ACL in his right knee.

FAU HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started 105 of 121 games played over five seasons at Florida Atlantic.
- Compiled 1,334 points (10.9 ppg) and 630 rebounds (5.2 rpg), while shooting 44.5 percent overall and 36.1 percent from 3-point range for the Owls.
- Among FAU's statistical leaders, finished his career in Boca Raton ranked No. 6 in scoring (1,334 points), No. 3 in rebounds (630), No. 3 in field goals made (521) and No. 6 in field goals attempted (1170).
- One of two FAU players to record 1,000 points and 600 rebounds.
- Recorded 64 double-figure scoring performances, with 16 20-point outings, and 11 double-digit rebounding counts, leading to 10 double-doubles.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started 15 of 21 games played and led the Owls in both scoring (12.5 ppg) and rebounding (6.1 rpg).
- Reached double figures in the scoring column 12 times, with six of those outings ascending to the 20-point plateau.
- Shot a better percentage from 3-point range (.446) than overall (.440). In fact, made 44.6 percent of his shots from behind the arc and 43.7 percent of 2-pointers.
- Scored a season-high 26 points twice – against Florida National (when he was 7-of-8 from 3-point range) and Old Dominion (when he connected on 12-of-17 field goal attempts).
- Equaled his career-high rebound count with 12 boards against Middle Tennessee.

2019-20 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started 22 of 30 of his GP'd and contributed totals of 12.0 points and 5.4 rebounds per game In 25.3 minutes of action per contest.
- Named to the 10-player preseason All-Conference USA team in balloting of league coaches despite playing only 10 games the previous years.
- Led the Owls in scoring and rebounding, both overall and in C-USA action. Upped his point production considerably in conference play, from 12.0 ppg to 14.0 ppg and from 5.4 rpg to 6.6 rpg.
- Notched 19 double-figure scoring outputs, including a trio of 20-point efforts, and three double-digit rebounding tallies to record three double-doubles.
- Enjoyed a strong homecoming performance at Mercer, scoring 21 points, grabbing eight rebounds and delivering five assists in a 65-50 win three days before Christmas. His hometown of Madison is about 60 miles from the Mercer campus in Macon.
- Became the 13th Owl to reach 1,000 career points during a 13-point, 11-rebound effort versus Texas San Antonio on Feb. 27. Eventually ascended to the No. 9 position on FAU's career scoring leaders ledger by season's end with 1,061 points.

NORTH TEXAS HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Started all 60 games played for the Mean Green over two seasons, scoring 575 points (6.9 ppg), grabbing 159 rebounds (2.7 rpg) and connecting on 127 3-pointers (2.1 3FGpg).
◊ Converted on 127-of-319 3-pointers, a 39.8 percentage that ranks sixth-best among UNT career leaders.
◊ Helped North Texas to a combined 43-17 record over two seasons, headlined by postseason victories in the 2021 NCAA Tournament and the 2022 NIT.
◊ Notched 30 double-figure scoring games, with eight of those coming in Conference USA, NCAA and NIT postseason contests.
◊ Recorded his single-game high of 24 points against Texas State on March 15, 2022, in the opening round of the NIT.
◊ Earned the nickname "Marchdrez" for his scoring and 3-point shooting in postseason play. In four combined outings in the 2021 NCAA Tournament and the 2022 NIT, averaged 18.0 points and converted on 19 shots from behind the arc (4.8 3FGpg).

2021-22 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ One of four players to start all 32 games for the Mean Green, which won a school-record 25 games and finished 25-7 overall.
◊ Averaged 11.3 points and also led UNT in PT (34.3 mpg) and 3-pointers (2.5 3FGpg).
◊ Recorded 21 double-digit scoring outputs, including trio of 20-point performances.
◊ Knocked down 79 3-pointers, the sixth-most in program history.
◊ Among Conference USA statistical leaders, ranked No. 8 in both 3-pointers (2.5 3FGpg) and minutes played (34.3 mpg).
◊ In stats for C-USA games only, led the league in 3-point percentage (.438) and ranked No. 9 in both 3-pointers (2.6 3FGpg) and playing time (34.7 mpg).
◊ Poured in a career-high 24 points in an NIT win over Texas State on March 15.
◊ In NIT outings against Texas State and Virginia, averaged 22.5 points, largely due to making six 3-pointers in each contest.
◊ Played all 45 minutes of Mean Green's season-ending NIT setback at Virginia.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Started all 28 games of the Mean Green's historic campaign that featured the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament win.
◊ Averaged 7.7 points and 2.3 rebounds in 24.0 minutes of action per game.
◊ After contributing 6.7 points during the regular-season, he nearly doubled that production to 11.3 points in North Texas' six games in the Conference USA and NCAA Tournaments. Did so largely by connecting on 18-of-34 3-point attempts during that span, a sizzling 52.9 percentage.
◊ North Texas wrapped up the regular season with a 13-9 record before winning four games in as many days to capture the Conference USA Tournament.
◊ Opened his UNT career with 21 points against Mississippi Valley, connecting on 6-of-8 shots from the floor – including 6-of-7 3-pointers – and 3-of-4 trips to the line. That effort stood as his season-high tally.
◊ Canned a 3-pointer with 22 seconds left in regulation of the C-USA Tournament final against Western Kentucky, eventually extended the game to overtime.
◊ Played all 40 minutes and scored 16 points in the Mean Green's 78-69 OT victory over Purdue in the NCAA Tournament.

JUNIOR COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Coached by Jake Williams at the University of South Carolina Salkehatchie in 2019-20.
◊ Started 29 of 30 games and helped the Indians compile a 27-4 record and capture the NJCAA Division I Region 10 title.
◊ The Indians were announced as the No. 10 seed in the NJCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to COVID-19.
◊ Named first-team All Region 10 after averaging 14.4 points and 3.3 rebounds, while also posting team-high tallies 5.1 assists and 1.2 steals per game.
◊ Finished the season ranked third nationally in 3-point percentage (52.9 percent).

24 JADEN NEWELL

6-8 • 220 • FRESHMAN • FORWARD • DESTIN, FLA.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- Coached by Mike Memmen as a senior and by Andrew Thigpen as a junior and a sophomore at Choctawhatchee High.
- Played in 50 games for Choctaw High's Indians, including 29 contests as a senior.
- As a senior, averaged 4.3 points and 4.1 rebounds per game to help Choctaw post a 14-15 record and reach the first round of the Florida 5A state tournament.
- Helped the fourth-seeded Indians upset top-seeded Godby, 69-55, in the semifinals of the 5A District 1 tournament before falling to Pine Forest, 70-62, in the championship matchup. Pine Forest went on to reach the semifinals of the 5A state tourney.
- Scored a career-high 12 points and grabbed eight rebounds – one shy of his career high – in Choctaw's season-ending setback to Riverside in the round of 32 of the state tournament.
- Collected a career-most nine rebounds in a 55-47 victory over Escambia on Jan. 11.
- Popped for 10 points in a 49-44 victory over Milton, more than 20 percent of the Indians' total offensive output in the Jan. 17 contest.
- As a junior, helped the Indians to a 26-3 record and a runner-up performance in the Florida 5A state tourney.
- Played in 20 games during his junior season, averaging 1.1 points and 1.4 rebounds.
- The Indians finished the season at No. 22 overall in MaxPrep's all-classification rankings for the state of Florida.
- Debuted on the varsity during his sophomore year at Choctaw, which finished 22-7 and advanced to the round of 16 of Florida's 2020 7A state tournament that season.

PERSONAL:

- Born January 8, 2004, Jaden is the son of Justin Newell and Carmen Mitchell-Newell and is undecided on a major.
- Lived in Athens for six years during his childhood – from when he was 6-12 years old – while his grandmother, Jacqueline Mitchell, served as an administrative assistant in Human Resources at UGA.

3 KARIO OQUENDO

6-4 • 220 • JUNIOR • GUARD • TITUSVILLE, FLA.

2021-22 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Georgia's leading scorer, both overall (15.2 ppg) and in SEC action (18.3 ppg).
◊ Started all 31 games he played, missing only the game at Auburn as a late scratch due to a slight lower body injury.
◊ Led the Bulldogs offensively in a team-high 13 contests, and also paced Georgia on the boards six times, in steals in 15 outings and in blocks in 12 games.
◊ Of his 22 double-digit scoring outputs, 15 came in SEC play.
◊ Recorded 10 20-point performances, including eight against SEC opposition. In those contests, shot 50.9 percent (83-of-163) from the field and 81.8 percent (54-of-66) from the line.
◊ Scored 33 points at Texas A&M, equaling the highest single-game tally by any SEC player during the 2021-22 campaign.
◊ Posted the Bulldogs' four highest scoring outputs of the season – 33 points at Texas A&M, 28 at Mississippi State, 26 at LSU and 25 versus Auburn in Athens.
◊ Also accounted for Georgia's top tallies for field goals (12 at Texas A&M), field goal attempts (22 at Texas A&M), free throw attempts (15 at Missouri), steals (four, three times) and blocks (three versus Wofford).
◊ Among SEC statistical leaders, finished the season ranked No. 9 in scoring and No. 7 in field goal percentage.
◊ In stat leaders for SEC games only, ranked No. 4 in scoring (18.3 ppg) and No. 9 in field goal percentage (.460). Ranked fourth in the league in scoring in SEC play despite a scoreless outing at South Carolina while still playing through a slight injury.
◊ Played his best against the Bulldogs' stiffest competition. In four games against ranked teams – No. 18 Memphis, at No. 16 Kentucky, vs. No. 1 Auburn and vs. No. 13 Tennessee – averaged 21.8 points while shooting 52.5 percent from the field.
◊ One of college basketball's best dunkers who earned his way onto SportsCenter's top-10 plays on a trio of Tuesdays, nicknamed the "Top Quen."

- On Nov. 16, his uncontested windmill versus S.C. State was tabbed No. 3.
- On Nov. 23, his posterization of a 6-9 Northwestern defender was featured at No. 6.
- On March 1, an emphatic tomahawk finish over a helpless Tennessee Volunteer was labeled No. 3.

◊ Exploded for 24 points in an efficient manner (.692 FG pct.) in Georgia's upset of No. 18 Memphis.
◊ Opened SEC play with 21 points against Texas A&M, 22 at Kentucky and 28 at Mississippi State to become the first Bulldog with three-straight 20-point outings since Anthony Edwards.
◊ Scored 33 points at Texas A&M, the most by a Bulldog since Anthony Edwards' 37 against No. 3 Michigan State in the 2019 Maui Jim Maui Invitational.

Terry Fair
1983 Final Four Captain

A McDonald's All-American from Southwest High School in Macon, Terry Fair was perhaps the greatest all-around post player in Georgia history. When he wrapped up his playing days in Athens, Fair held Georgia's career records for games played and steals and also ranked No. 2 in rebounds, No. 4 in points and No. 9 in assists. Fair exploded for a career-high 37 points in the Bulldogs' 70-67 upset of top-seeded and No. 3-ranked St. John's in the "Sweet 16" round of the NCAA Tournament. Fair passed away in January 2020.

The University of Georgia changed the leadership of its men's basketball program following the 2021-22 season, with Tom Crean relieved of his role as head coach after his fourth season asa the Bulldogs' head coach.

Georgia finished 6-26 overall and 1-17 in the SEC on the season. Crean compiled a 47-75 record and was 15-57 in SEC play during his four campaigns with the Bulldogs.

"I would like to sincerely thank Coach Crean and his family for their commitment to Georgia Basketball," said Josh Brooks, J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics. "Tom Crean demonstrated unquestionable effort and enthusiasm in what he has attempted to accomplish at Georgia. That said, our expectation is to compete for postseason success in all 21 sports."

Bridges Tops SEC In FG Percentage

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Atlanta native Braelen Bridges became the first Georgia player to lead the Southeastern Conference in field goal percentage in more than four decades.

Bridges connected on 161 of his 264 shots from the field, a stellar 63.4 percent that made him the first Bulldog to top the SEC in shooting efficiency since Lavon Mercer in 1980.

Bridges was consistent throughout the season but was not ranked among the league and national leaders until late in the campaign. Though he scored in double figures in a team-high 25 games – and notched nine points in four of the other seven outings – he spent much of the season just shy of the minimum of 5.0 FGs per game to be ranked.

With 22 makes in Georgia's last three regular-season outings, Bridges upped his season total to 156 field goals, one more than needed to be ranked. After not being included for months, Bridges reappeared among the national statistics on March 7. Prior to that, he was last included on Dec. 17, nine games into the season, when he was No. 8.

Bridges' mark not only paced the SEC, it also ranked No. 7 nationally on the season as outlined below.

Bridges, Cook Join UGA Leaders

Braelen Bridges and Aaron Cook enjoyed two of the most productive seasons in Georgia \history in field goal percentage and assists, respectively, as outlined in the next column.

Kario Oquendo established himself as one of the nation's top in-game dunkers in his first season as a Bulldog.

Bridges' shooting effort from the field of 63.4 ranks as the second-best ever by a Bulldog. Cook distributed 166 assists in his single season at Georgia, the third-most in program history.

The SportsCenter "Top Quen"

Kario Oquendo emphatically made his way in the top-10 plays on ESPN's SportsCenter three times during the season.

On Nov. 16, he produced the No. 3 play against South Caroline State with a steal at midcourt and an uncontested wind-milled dunk.

His Nov. 23 effort was tabbed No. 6. Oquendo, who's 6-4, gathered a steal in Northwestern's lane and drove the length of the floor before thundering home a dunk over a 6-9 Wildcat.

On March 1, Oquendo accepted a pass at the top of the key and drove for an emphatic tomahawk finish over a Volunteer defender. That one came in at No. 3 on SportsCenter.

Lamar Heard
1983 Final Four Captain

As a senior at Cartersville High School, Lamar Heard was rated as the fourth-best prospect in Georgia behind Terry Fair, Dale Ellis and Jeff Malone. After coming off the bench during his first three seasons in Athens, Heard started all 34 games of Georgia's Final Four campaign and averaged 7.1 points and 6.6 rebounds per game. Heard was a key cog in the Bulldogs' postseason success in 1983, shooting 61.8 percent from the floor and grabbing a team-high 7.3 rebounds per game in Georgia's seven games in the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. Heard passed away in May 2017.

Rayshaun Hammonds double-double of 15 points and 12 rebounds led Georgia to a 65-62 upset at No. 9 Memphis on Jan. 4, 2020. The victory was just the Bulldogs' second-ever road win over a ranked non-conference opponent. Georgia's only other road win over an AP top-25 team came on Dec. 29, 1977, when the Bulldogs upset No. 7 Louisville, 73-70, in the championship of the Louisville Classic.

2008 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Terrance Woodbury (above left) and MVP Sundiata Gaines (above right) led Georgia to the 2008 SEC Tournament championship with an unforgettable run that included two games in one day. After knocking off Ole Miss in overtime on Thursday, a category F2 tornado struck downtown Atlanta on the night of March 14 shortly before the Bulldogs were to take on Kentucky. It forced postponement of that second-round game, and the tournament's remainder was played at Alexander Memorial Coliseum (top), home court of arch-rival Georgia Tech. Georgia defeated both the Wildcats and Mississippi State on March 15 and then outlasted Arkansas in the championship game on March 16.

The late Alec Kessler, an All-America forward at Georgia in 1989-90, arguably rates among the top scholar-athletes in collegiate history. Kessler, a 3.91 student in Microbiology, was twice named the U.S. Basketball Writers Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For being so honored, Kessler was awarded a pair of $20,000 post-graduate scholarships. Kessler, who played four seasons for the NBA's Miami Heat, in 1991 donated all $40,000 from these scholarships to UGA's general scholarship fund.

Each SEC school annually selects a Legend who made outstanding contributions on and off the court and brought notoriety, prestige and honor to both their school and the SEC. The Legends are recognized at the SEC Tournament.

DOMINIQUE WILKINS

Known as the "Human Highlight Film," Dominique Wilkins arrived in Athens in 1979 and helped take Georgia Basketball to new heights.

Individually, Wilkins was a two-time All-American and a three-time All-SEC honoree. He was also tabbed both SEC Player of the Year and MVP of the SEC Tournament in 1981.

From a team perspective, Wilkins led Georgia to the 1981 NIT, the Bulldogs' first postseason appearance. A year later, he helped Georgia advance to the NIT semifinals.

Wilkins entered the NBA Draft after his junior year. He was the No. 3 overall pick by the Utah Jazz but soon thereafter traded to the Atlanta Hawks. Wilkins played the majority of his career with the Hawks, where he was a nine-time All-Star, a seven-time All-NBA selection and a two-time slam dunk champion.

In 1991, Wilkins became the first Bulldog to have his jersey – No. 21 – retired by Georgia.

Wilkins was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, was a member of the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 2005, was Georgia Basketball's first inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

HUGH DURHAM

During 17 seasons at Georgia, Hugh Durham elevated Georgia Basketball to a national stage.

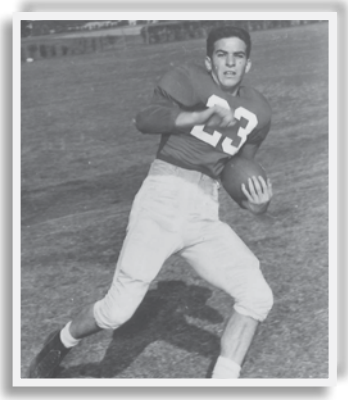
Durham is UGA's winningest coach with 297 victories. Prior to his arrival, Georgia had never received a postseason bid in 74 seasons. The Bulldogs reached postseason play 11 times during Durham's tenure and also won their first SEC Tournament in 1983 and SEC Championship in 1990. He was named SEC Coach of the Year three times – in 1985, 1987 and 1990.

In UGA's initial NCAA Tournament appearance in 1983, the Bulldogs advanced to the Final Four. Durham's Dogs defeated St. John's and North Carolina to win the East Regional before falling to eventual champion N.C. State.

Durham posted 633 career victories in 37 seasons, with 230 at Florida State and 106 at Jacksonville bookending his wins at Georgia. He was the first coach in Division I history to take two schools to their first Final Four and just the sixth to reach the Final Four at two schools.

Durham was inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame 1980, the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame in 1994, the Florida Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2009, the Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame in 2012 and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

ZIPPY MOROCCO



Anthony "Zippy" Morocco came to Athens from Youngstown, Ohio and became UGA's first All-American in basketball and one of the Bulldogs' best two-sport performers ever.

Morocco led the SEC in scoring in 1953 at 23.6 points per game on 590 points, breaking the existing SEC mark of 540 points by Kentucky's Cliff Hagan. He led the Bulldog football team in kickoff returns three consecutive years and in punt returns twice. He also was Georgia's top receiver in 1950 and averaged over 10 yards every time he touched the ball.

Morocco was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

ALEC KESSLER

Alec Kessler is widely regarded as one of the greatest student-athletes in the history of college athletics.

On the basketball court, he broke UGA's career scoring record, was named SEC Player of the Year and All-America in 1990 and was chosen No. 12 overall in the NBA Draft.

Kessler graduated with a 3.91 GPA while majoring in Microbiology. He was named men's basketball's Academic All-American of the Year in both 1989 and 1990 and was selected as the top Academic All-American for all sports in 1990.

Kessler was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015.

UGA CIRCLE OF HONOR

ALEC KESSLER – 2000
ZIPPY MOROCCO – 2002
JARVIS HAYES – 2020

The Circle of Honor is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

WILLIE ANDERSON

Atlanta native Willie Anderson blossomed into one of the college basketball's most diverse talents during his career at UGA. As a senior, Anderson averaged 16.7 points, 4.0 assists and 1.9 steals in 1988. He then earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team that summer.

Anderson was drafted No. 10 overall by San Antonio Spurs in the 1988 NBA Draft. He was a first-team All-NBA Rookie pick in 1989 and went on to play nine seasons in the NBA.

Anderson was enshrined in the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

Dominique Wilkins was the No. 3 overall selection by the Utah Jazz 1982 but was traded to Atlanta soon thereafter. Wilkins scored 21,369 of his 26,668 career points with the Hawks.

Kentavious Caldwell-Pope was the No. 8 overall pick and selected by the Detriot Pistons during the 2008 NBA Draft. Caldwell-Pope was Georgia's sixth, first-round draft pick and third since 1999.

Anthony Edwards was taken No. 1 overall by the Minnesota in 2020, a wise pick considering midway through his second season he became the fourth-youngest player to top 2,500 points.

Yante Maten went undrafted in 2018 but then chose to sign with the Miami Heat, which had no picks in the NBA Draft. A solid summer league performance earned Maten a two-way contract for 2018-19.

VERN FLEMING

1984 OLYMPIAN – LOS ANGELES GAMES

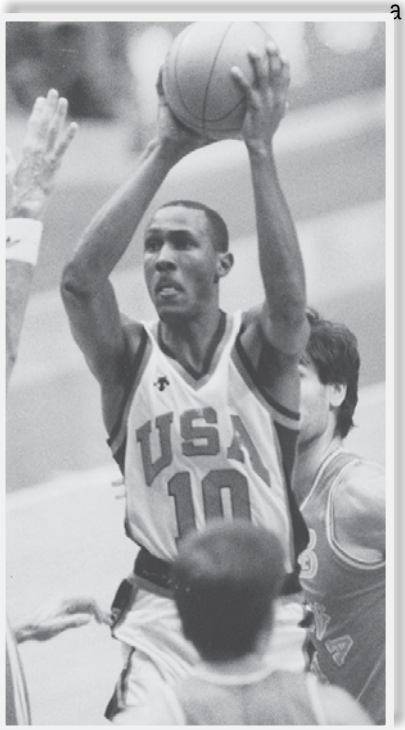
Vern Fleming, one of the finest Bulldog performers in history, made his mark at every level of competitive basketball. In 1984, he earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and played a large role in its Gold Medal-winning effort. Fleming averaged 7.7 points during the Los Angeles Olympics, connecting on 51.1 percent of his shots. He also tallied 19 rebounds, 19 assists and nine steals.

Many consider the 1984 Americans as the finest amateur assemblage in the sport's history. The squad featured future Naismith Hall of Fame inductees Michael Jordan, Chris Mullin and Patrick Ewing.

From 1984-95, Fleming was a standout player for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

WILLIE ANDERSON

1988 OLYMPIAN – SEOUL GAMES



Willie Anderson was star performer of the 1987 and 1988 Bulldogs, leading the '87 squad to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In 1988, Anderson was selected to the U.S. Olympic Team and in the same year was the first-round draft pick of the San Antonio Spurs. The Americans earned a bronze medal at the Seoul Olympics. Anderson averaged 5.0 points per game while pacing the squad by shooting 64.0 percent from the field. He also added 13 rebounds, six assists, six steals and four blocks.

Anderson returned from Seoul and played seven years for the Spurs before doing stints with Toronto, New York and Miami to round out his 10-year career in the league.

JUMAINE JONES

1998 GOODWILLGAMES NEW YORK

The 6-7 forward put an exclamation mark on his outstanding freshman season at Georgia by making the 12-man U.S. team for the Goodwill Games. Jones later started all five games for the Americans and averaged 7.4 points for the gold medal winners.

DAMEN WILKINS

2015 PAN AM GAMES TORONTO

Former Bulldog Damien Wilkins was selected for the U.S. team that participated in the 2015 Pan Am Games in Toronto. Wilkins, 35, started every contest in the five-game tournament and helped the Americans secure a bronze medal. He averaged 13.2 points while shooting 54.8 percent from the floor, 75.0 percent from 3-point range and 70.8 percent from the line. Wilkins also chipped in 5.0 rebounds in 25.4 minutes per game.

Following the Games, Wilkins signed a free agent contract with the Charlotte Hornets to continue his 10-season NBA career.

TREY THOMPKINS

2009 U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS AUCKLAND

Eighteen years had gone by since the American Under 19 team had won its last gold medal at this 2-week tournament. The rising Georgia sophomore played a key role in restoring the Yanks to the winner's circle. Thompkins averaged 10.6 points – second-best on the team – and 5.1 rebounds per game. He also had the Americans' highest single-game scoring effort when he poured in 22 in a 4th-round win over Greece. The U.S. team won all nine of its games by an average margin of over 22 points.

A year later, Thompkins was named to the USA Select squad, a group of collegians that worked as training partners alongside the USA

YANTE MATEN

2020 AMERICUP QUALIFYING INDIANAPOLIS

Yante Maten, the 2018 SEC Player of the Year, donned the Red, White & Blue for USA Basketball in 2020. Maten suited up for the national team participating in qualifying for the 2021 Americup.

Maten started both games and averaged 14.0 points – while shooting 68.8 percent from the field – and 5.5 rebounds in victories over Bahamas and Mexico.

The first games in Georgia basketball history took place in the old YMCA building, located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton streets.

Since the inaugural season of 1905-06, Georgia basketball has called six different buildings home. These facilities have held a wide range of usefulness and pertinence to basketball. There's little doubt, however, that the Bulldogs' current home of Stegeman Coliseum is the best, most accommodating home they've ever had.

During the 1906-12 seasons, Georgia games were played in the old Athens YMCA building located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton Streets, currently the site of the Georgia Theater. The seating capacity for spectators was about 200, but it didn't seem to matter in those days. The earliest Bulldogs played their games in relative anonymity. Very rarely did the attendance reach full capacity at the YMCA building.

The building that is now called Memorial Hall on campus was the second gymnasium used by the Bulldog cagers. Construction on this facility began in 1910 and was to be built by the Alumni and the YMCA in a joint effort. The Alumni Association, however, eventually assumed full responsibility for the funds for its construction. Only in a partial state of completion, the team began to use the auditorium of "Alumni Hall," as it was called then, for its home games. Spectators viewed the games from a balcony which ran around the playing court, and the baskets were affixed to this balcony. In fact, the balcony became quite the advantage for Bulldog hoopsters, who had to tailor the arc of their shots to avoid hitting it.

Alumni Hall was used until about 1920, when the team moved to another on-campus location known as "The Octagon." It was located about where the current Main Library parking lot is, between the library and Jackson Street. Built in 1916 for $3,600 and for the purpose of accommodating summer-school functions, the Octagon was made of wood and sat approximately 1,400 people. The main problem for basketball was the lack of a heating system in this 8-sided building. There was also a four-foot opening around the wall up to the roof, with the roof overhanging to prevent rain from blowing in. The Octagon was used sparingly because of the absence of heat and also because of the ever-growing crowds.

Moss Auditorium, formerly the third floor of what became the Gallant-Belk store, was used for most of the games from 1920 until Woodruff Hall was completed. Crowds of up to 1,500 were estimated to have attended some of the home games.

Around this time, however, Coach Herman J. Stegeman was building quite a program. It became necessary for the basketball team to enjoy its own facility to accommodate the large crowds. Just before the completion of Woodruff Hall in 1925, the Bulldogs moved back into Alumni Hall, the construction of which had finally resumed after a fund-raising drive.

Excavation began on November 20, 1924 for the construction of Woodruff Hall, the building that was named for George and Harry Woodruff of Columbus, Ga. This facility was built in a central on-campus location, where the Journalism/Psychology building now stands, and had a seating capacity of 3,500. There was space enough for three basketball courts, with the main court measuring not quite the required length of 94 feet. Built at an estimated cost of $53,000, Woodruff Hall was officially dedicated by Dr. S.V. Sanford on Feb. 21, 1925 in a game where Georgia defeated Georgia Tech 34-24.

Woodruff Hall served as the Bulldogs' home for nearly 40 years. By the end of that stretch, however, many believed it had become the bane of the program.

Harbin "Red" Lawson was Georgia's coach for the last 13 years in Woodruff Hall. Publicly, he joked that it was the only basketball facility where wind direction and velocity affected his strategy. Other coaches, led by Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, despised playing games there. So dimly lit was Woodruff Hall that Auburn coach Joel Eaves turned out half the lights in his own gym, just to prepare for the Georgia game.

Eventually, Eaves became Athletic Director at Georgia. Two years into his tenure, in 1964, the Bulldogs dedicated their current home as the Georgia Coliseum. In 1996, it was given its current name of Stegeman Coliseum in honor of the man that first lifted the Georgia basketball program into prominence.

Over its 50 years, Stegeman Coliseum has hosted its share of memories, and also extracurricular functions. Operated in a co-op agreement with the University's agricultural college, the Bulldogs once shared the building with various rodeos and other livestock shows. And in 1996, the world's sporting attention turned to Athens, where Stegeman played host to volleyball and rhythmic gymnastics competitions at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.

GEORGIA BASKETBALL HOME COURTS

Zippy Morocco, Georgia's first All-American in 1953, played three years in the spartan conditions of Woodruff Hall, home of the Bulldogs from 1925 until 1964.

ENSURING THE FUTURE OF UGA ATHLETICS

In an effort to permanently fund student-athlete scholarships, the UGA Athletic Association founded the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program. Contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at 877-GA-DAWGS today to learn more about endowment opportunities for one of UGA's 21 varsity sports. All Athletic Scholarship Endowment Donors are invited to an annual reception where they have the opportunity to connect with the recipient of their scholarship. To date, more than 200 scholarships have been endowed.
